

Privacy policy

Norwegian Energy Partners (NORWEP) takes your privacy seriously and is committed to protecting your privacy rights. We want you to know why we collect your personal data, what we collect, how we use it, and for how long we store it. We also want you to know how you can access, amend, correct, and in some cases delete your information.

Your personal data is processed in accordance with the Norwegian privacy laws, including the implementation of the European Union (EU) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Our commitment

- Be transparent about how we collect, use and store your personal data.
- Use your personal data only for the purpose for which we have collected it.
- Not to collect or process more personal data that we need in order to provide you with our services and continue to develop those services for your benefit.
- Design our apps/systems to inherently protect your privacy (privacy by design).
- Not to store personal data for longer than legally needed or instructed by you.
- Enable you to delete and correct personal data that is wrong or you do not wish us to keep.
- Ask for your informed consent before we share your personal data with third parties, and only to share your data when it benefits you as a partner or business associate.
- Use the best available security practices and tools to protect your personal data.

Your personal data is processed in accordance with the Norwegian implementation of the European Union (EU) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) from 2018. Hereunder you have the right to:

- have your personal data deleted
- have any data corrected
- be informed on how NORWEP process your personal data

Why we collect and store personal data

- The main objective is to manage our non-profit foundation's aim to benefit our members and their expanding activities in the international energy industry
- To deliver our newsletter or other relevant professional information
- To invite participants (including chairs, speakers and panellists) to our events
- To have relevant contact points in our partner companies

How we collect personal data

We collect information when you:

- Register to get partner access to our web site content
- Sign up for our newsletter
- Register to take part in our events
- Contact us or meet in a professional capacity and express a consent to receive information from us.

What we collect

We may collect all or any of the following: name, title, email, phone, job address, company market interest(s) or other special professional interests.

How we use personal information

- We never sell or rent your personal data to third parties.
- If you are a NORWEP partner, we use your personal data to send you relevant updates and information, including newsletters and other email invitations
- If you log on to our partner site, we use your personal data to verify that you are eligible to access partner content there.
- We may communicate with you using SMS or other means of communications to remind you of events you have signed up for.
- We store personal data in our customer relationship database. NORWEP has advisors globally. The advisors have access to our CRM database.
- We sign data protection agreements those who we legally share information with or those which, on our behalf, process information, that limits access to use of the information and determines obligations to comply with applicable privacy laws.

How long we keep personal information

Personal data is stored for no longer than practical and legally necessary, depending on the processing objective

Your choices and rights

- You can choose to opt out of marketing communications at any time.
- You can request a copy of your personal data with us and you can update any incorrect information.
- You can ask to have your personal data removed, or in some cases limited or deleted. This does not apply when we are obliged to keep your information for other legal reasons.

If you are based in the EEA/EU, you can contact us at:

Norwegian Energy Partners
PO box 631, Skøyen
0214 Oslo

Email: norwep@norwep.com

Phone: (+47) 22 06 14 80